We love Pittsburgh Parent:

"Pittsburgh Parent Magazine reaches our target clientele and working with staff there has always been an easy and pleasant experience! Over the years, we've enjoyed great success with promotional programs and coupons in Pittsburgh Parent Magazine." — Liza Barbour, Gymkhana Gymnastics

"Working with Pittsburgh Parent Magazine gives ACHIEVA the opportunity to reach parents throughout the Pittsburgh region. As a non-profit, ACHIEVA has to be selective in where we use our advertising dollars. Through Pittsburgh Parent ACHIEVA has confidence that our Early Intervention services are targeting the proper market." — Danielle Parson-Rush, ACHIEVA

"I have advertised with Pittsburgh Parent through the Pittsburgh Cultural Trust for the Citizens Bank Children's Theater Series, EQT Children's Theater Festival and PNC Broadway Across America Series. We present such a wide variety of programming at the Pittsburgh Cultural Trust, but Pittsburgh Parent is always a great fit for our advertising needs. I am always happy with the quality of ad and publication, the willingness of magazine management to work with our crazy schedule and the publicity we receive. I know that much of the success in our family programming is due to great coverage in Pittsburgh Parent." — Robin Elrod, Pittsburgh Cultural Trust

"When looking for something really neat to do with my kids, I pick up Pittsburgh Parent." — Heidi Krueger, Reader/Mom, Cannonsburg
