Check out the June issue of Pittsburgh Parent Magazine

If you have not finalized your child's plans for this summer, there is still time to check out residential and day camps, local summer activity programs and family vacations - like a trip to the lake to camping in local parks.

The June issue always includes the Summer Party Guide. We are sharing some great ideas for first birthdays that "keep on giving". If you have a summer party coming up - you will want to hold on to this pull out section.
